115 Sympathy Point Road Taranna TAS

Over approximately 2kms of your own secluded waterfront (adjoining the Crown reserve) on a unique parcel of approximately 122 acres (49.36 hectares). Here you can be a world away from the hustle and bustle and be at one with the sensational coastline and untouched coastal forest.

This block is situated at the end of a peninsula with protected bays on three sides offering a variety of outlooks.

This rare opportunity is for those who respect and appreciate Mother Nature and has been loved and protected by the one family for over 70 years.

Enjoy being spoilt for choice. There are many places to build your dream home and a boathouse (stca), stunning views over Norfolk Bay and Dart Island and many pebbly coves and rock shelves with crystal clear water in which to
