29 Riviera Drive Carlton TAS

Whether you are looking to escape the suburban struggles, downsizing from a much larger property or just need a little more space, you will be delighted by this block of residential land, located in a popular enclave of newly built homes.

In a new world, where working from home is becoming more and more common, you could set up office here but, we must admit, you run the risk of being easily distracted by the ever changing views and varied lifestyle activities that are presented by the coastal lifestyle that the beach and river side suburb of Carlton offers.

This 2,304 m2 block has a large double garage already in place and offers multiple building spots to ensure you maximise both views and privacy.

Price : $ 451,340
