Sloping Main

Held for 3 generations we are proud to present this sensational mix of pasture and untouched bushland, featuring amazing water views over Sloping Main Beach and beyond to Frederick Henry Bay and Mount Wellington. You could search the world and still not find a comparable parcel of land with approximately 1050 acres to plan your future, surrounded by wildlife and an abundance of clean air and water. There are many potential sites for a dream residence or holiday hideaway, in addition to commercial opportunities such as viticulture and eco-tourism {stca}.

This property provides complete privacy while providing the luxury of an expansive coastline to be enjoyed as you follow tracks for exclusive bushwalking. There are old convict ruins to explore and plenty of history including an old sandstone quarry. You will also discover some internal dams and fencing with one boundary adjoining Lime Bay
